10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 ZERINA RENE A GRAYSON,

14 Defendant.
15

Case No. 2:13-cr-00206-LDG (PAL)

ORDER

16 Defendant Zerina Renea Grayson has filed a document captioned "Motion
17 Requesting Monetary Penalties Payment Accountability & Review of Restitution Obligation"
18 (ECF No. 69) and a motion for early termination of probation (ECF No. 73). The 19 government has responded to both motions.

20 The Court agrees with the government that it is not entirely clear what relief Grayson
21 seeks in her "Motion Requesting Monetary Penalties Payment Accountability & Review of 22 Restitution Obligation." The government notes that, as of the date of its response, it could 23 verify that $11,690.53 had been credited toward her restitution obligation, but that it could 24 not verify whether any additional amount should be credited based on the garnishment of 25 her wages arising from the civil judgment against her by her victim. The government notes
26

1 that it is Grayson's burden to establish that she is entitled to a credit against her restitution.

2 The Court agrees that Grayson has not met her burden and will deny her motion.

3 In her motion for early termination of probation, Grayson asserts that she has paid
4 her restitution obligation in full and thus should be released from probation. The Court may 5 terminate probation any time after a defendant has served at least one year of her 6 sentence "if it is satisfied that such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant and 7 the interest of justice." While the Court commends the defendant for complying with the 8 terms of her probation, mere compliance with those terms is not a sufficient reason for the 9 early termination of probation. Accordingly, the Court will deny the motion.

10 Therefore, for good cause shown,

11 THE COURT ORDERS that Defendant's "Motion Requesting Monetary Penalties
12 Payment Accountability & Review of Restitution Obligation" (ECF No. 69) is DENIED;

13 THE COURT FURTHER ORDERS that Defendant's Motion for Early Termination of 14 Probation (ECF No. 73) is DENIED.
